

Cookie Policy

We use cookies on this website. Some cookies are essential for the correct operation of the website. For other types of cookies we need your permission. Analytical data obtained by the cookies will not identify you personally. You can change your selection at any time please visiting the Grayshott Concerts Privacy Policy page of this website.

We will collect personal data on this website only if it is directly provided to us by you, the user, e.g. your name, email address and telephone number, and therefore has been provided by you with your consent. Typically you will provide such details if you enquire with us using our contact form or make a purchase.

We also use analytical and statistical tools that monitor details of your visits to our website and the resources that you access, including, but not limited to traffic data, location data, weblogs and other communication data. This data will not identify you personally.

The analytical data is obtained by placing cookies on your viewing device. A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers which we store in your browser or on the hard drive of your computer. These cookies may be necessary for the function of the website or they may be for website analytics or for marketing purposes.

The law states that we can store cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for the operation of this website. For all other types of cookies we need your permission. You can choose which cookies you allow us to use, apart from essential cookies, which can't be turned off. See below how to manage your cookie preferences.

You can also block cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all or parts of our website.

All our online payments for tickets and supper purchases are processed by Stripe. We do not have access to any of the credit card information or other financial details you enter when making a purchase, however we do receive a summary of the items you purchase so that we can complete the order.
